Released: April 25, 2011

By the Chief, Media Bureau:

1. Media Council Hawai'i ("Complainant") has filed the above-captioned complaint,<sup>1</sup> in which it has alleged that an Asset Exchange Agreement and related Term Loan Note, Purchase Option Agreement, Shared Services Agreement and Studio Lease between Raycom Media, Inc. ("Raycom"), controlling parent of stations KHNL(TV) and KGMB(TV), Honolulu, Hawai'i, and HITV License Subsidiary, Inc. Raycom and HITV further requested confidential treatment of certain financial data contained in the April 1, 2011, letter. While we are mindful of the sensitive nature of this data, we also acknowledge the right of all parties to participate in a meaningful way in this proceeding. We conclude that the procedures we adopt in this Protective Order provide all interested parties in this proceeding both appropriate access to the previously submitted information as well as appropriate access to information that may be subsequently submitted, while protecting proprietary and confidential information from improper disclosure.<sup>3</sup> We further find that the procedures serve the public interest.

7. Review of Stamped Confidential Documents. A Submitting Party shall make available for review the Stamped Confidential Documents of such party at the offices of the party’s Outside Counsel of Record or, if the Submitting Party does not have Outside Counsel of Record, at the offices of such party’s In-House Counsel. If a Reviewing Party plans on requesting a complete set of documents, it is encouraged to make such a request at the time it submits the Acknowledgment to allow it the opportunity to begin reviewing the documents at the end of the five-day period referred to in paragraph 6. All copies of documents that are removed from the Submitting Party’s office must be returned or destroyed in accordance with the terms of paragraph 18.

8. Use of Confidential Information. Persons obtaining access to Confidential Information (including Stamped Confidential Documents) under this Protective Order shall use the information solely for the preparation and conduct of this proceeding before the Commission and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising directly from this proceeding and, except as provided herein, shall not use such documents or information for any other purpose, including without limitation business, governmental, or commercial purposes, or in other administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings. Should the Commission rely upon or otherwise make reference to the contents of any of the Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information in its decision in this proceeding, it will do so by redacting any Confidential Information from the public version of the decision and by making the unredacted version of the decision available only to a court and to those persons entitled to access to Confidential Information under this Protective Order.

9. Permissible Disclosure. A Reviewing Party may discuss and share the contents of the Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information with another Reviewing Party and with the Commission and its staff, subject, however, to the Commission's ex parte communications rules, 47 C.F.R. Part 1, Subpart H. A Submitting Party's Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information may also be disclosed to employees and Counsel of the Submitting Party. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 6, a Reviewing Party may disclose Stamped Confidential Documents and other Confidential Information only to: (1) outside consultants or experts retained by Complainant for the purpose of assisting Complainant's Counsel in this proceeding, provided that, the outside consultants or experts are not involved in the analysis underlying the business decisions of any competitor of any Submitting Party, nor that such outside consultants or experts participate directly in those business decisions; (2) clinical law students of the Georgetown University Institute for Public Representation assigned to this matter under the supervision of Petitioner's Counsel; (3) paralegals or other employees of Complainant's Counsel not described in clause 2 of this paragraph who are assisting Complainant's Counsel in this proceeding; (4) employees of Complainant's Counsel involved solely in one or more aspects of organizing, filing, coding, converting, storing, or retrieving documents or data or designing programs for handling data connected with this proceeding, or performing other clerical or ministerial functions with regard to documents connected with this proceeding; and (5) employees of third-party contractors performing one or more of the functions set forth in clause 4 of this paragraph.

10. Filings with the Commission. A Reviewing Party or a Submitting Party may in any document that it files in this proceeding disclose Confidential Information only if it complies with the following procedure. The party shall submit to the Secretary's Office one copy of the filing containing Confidential Information (the "Confidential Filing"), two copies of the filing in redacted form, i.e., containing no Confidential Information (the "Redacted Confidential Filing"), and an accompanying cover letter. The cover or first page of the Confidential Filing and each page of the Confidential Filing that contains or discloses Confidential Information must be clearly marked "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN FILE NO. DA 10-757." The cover letter shall also contain this legend. The Confidential Filing shall be made under seal, and will not be placed in the Commission's public file. The two copies of the Redacted Confidential Document and the accompanying cover letter shall be stamped "REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION." The cover letter accompanying the Redacted Confidential Filing shall state that the Submitting Party is filing a redacted version of the filing. Each Redacted Confidential Filing shall have the same pagination as the Confidential Filing from which it is derived. To the extent that any page of the Confidential Filing contains both Confidential Information and non-confidential information, only the Confidential Information may be redacted and the page of the unredacted Confidential Filing shall clearly distinguish the Confidential Information from the non-confidential information. Two copies of each Confidential Filing and the accompanying cover letter must be delivered in person to David Brown, Associate Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 2-A662, Washington, D.C. 20554, and one copy must be served on the relevant Submitting Party. Parties should not provide courtesy copies of pleadings containing Confidential Information to Commission staff unless the Bureau so requests, and any such courtesy copies shall be submitted under seal.

11. Non-Disclosure of Stamped Confidential Documents. Except with the prior written consent of the Submitting Party, or as provided under this Protective Order, neither a Stamped Confidential Document nor any Confidential Information may be disclosed further.

12. Protection of Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information. A Reviewing party shall have the obligation to ensure that access to Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information is strictly limited as prescribed in this Protective Order. A Reviewing Party shall further have the obligation to ensure that Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information are used only as provided in this Protective Order.

13. Requests for Additional Disclosure. If any person requests disclosure of Confidential Information outside of the terms of this Protective Order, requests will be treated in accordance with Sections 0.442 and 0.461 of the Commission's rules.

14. Client Consultation. Nothing in this order shall prevent or otherwise restrict Counsel from rendering advice to their clients relating to the conduct of this proceeding and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising from this proceeding and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such client, Counsel shall not disclose Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information.

15. No Waiver of Confidentiality. Disclosure of Confidential Information as provided herein by any person shall not be deemed a waiver by any Submitting Party of any privilege or entitlement to confidential treatment of such Confidential Information. Reviewing Parties, by viewing this material agree: (1) not to assert any such waiver; (2) not to use Confidential Information to seek disclosure in any other proceeding; and (3) that accidental disclosure of Confidential Information by a Submitting Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege or entitlement, as long as the Submitting Party takes prompt remedial action.

16. Subpoena by Courts, Departments, or Agencies. If a court, or a federal or state department or agency issues a subpoena or orders production of Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information that a person has obtained under terms of this Protective Order, such person shall promptly notify each Submitting Party of the pendency of such subpoena or order. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that the Submitting Party will have a full opportunity to oppose such production prior to the production or disclosure of any Stamped Confidential Document or Confidential Information.

17. Violations of Protective Order. Should a Reviewing Party violate any of the terms of this Protective Order, such Reviewing Party shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the Submitting Party. Further, should such violation consist of improper disclosure of Confidential Information, the violating person shall take all necessary steps to remedy the improper disclosure. The Commission retains its full authority to fashion appropriate sanctions for violations of this Protective Order, including but not limited to suspension or disbarment of Counsel from practice before the Commission, forfeitures, cease and desist orders, and denial of further access to Confidential Information in this or any other Commission proceeding. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the Submitting Party at law or in equity against any person using Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this Protective Order.

18. Termination of Proceeding. The provisions of this Protective Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding. Within two weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review, Reviewing Parties shall destroy or return to the Submitting Party Stamped Confidential Documents and all copies of the same. No material whatsoever derived from Stamped Confidential Documents may be retained by any person having access thereto, except Counsel may retain, under the continuing strictures of this Protective Order, two copies of pleadings (one of which may be in electronic format) prepared in whole or in part by that party that contain Confidential Information, and one copy of orders issued by the Commission or Bureau that contain Confidential Information. All Counsel shall certify compliance with these terms and shall deliver such certification to Counsel for the Submitting Party not more than three weeks after conclusion of this proceeding. The provisions of this paragraph regarding retention of Stamped Confidential Documents and copies of the same and Confidential Information shall not be construed to apply to the Commission or its staff.

19. Authority. This Order is issued pursuant to Section 4(i) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 154(i), Section 4 of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), and authority delegated under Section 0.283 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.283, and is effective upon its adoption.
